Hello, Sid Roth welcoming to my world where it's naturally supernatural.

My guest is no stranger to many of you, she is been on CNN, Fox News, Hannity and Combs, she is formerly an anchor woman of international news in Middle East television, Arabic language she was originally born in Lebanon, and she is now a citizen of the United States and she says there is a parallel between the fate of Lebanon, there is such a similarity between Lebanon and the United States and that the United States is literally a stage two cancer, ready to have the full-blown cancer unless there is a change, and it is the most amazing supernatural parallel that I have asked Brigitte Gabriel, Brigitte, tell me a little bit about Lebanon as you were a child, what was it like before it changed?

Brigitte: Well Lebanon used to be known as Paris of the Middle East, and the banking capital of the Middle East. Many people don't realized today that Lebanon used to be the only majority Christian country in the Middle East. We were open-minded, we were fair, we were tolerant, multi-cultural, we prided ourselves in our multi-culturalism, we had open border policy, we welcomed everyone into our country because we wanted to share with them the westernization which we had created in the heart of the Middle East, education was very important to us as a part of our Judeo-Christian culture, we focused on education and commerce, we had built the best universities in the Arabic world, Muslims used to send their children from the Arabic world to come to our universities to study, then graduated and worked in our economy because we had built the best economy in the Arabic world, even though we did not have any oil. Sadly all that began to change after 30-40 years.

Sid: That is so amazing, you have just described the United States of America, how tolerant we are, how we welcome diversity, how we allow what is going on in mosques today in the United States going on.

When I read your book "Because They Hate," I felt everyone must read this because of the parallels and recognize it is almost a preview of what is shortly going to happen in the United States of America.

What changed things in your country?

Brigitte: This is exactly a preview of what is going to happen in the United States because what happened in my country was once the Muslims became the majority because of their birth rates and the way they multiply, even thurs we started as the majority, but we don't have many children.

You know Christians and Jews, and now we are seeing this throughout the western world including the United States, we are not multiplying enough, we have two/three children from the time our kids are born, we start thinking what college we are going to send them to, the Muslims multiply much faster, and in Lebanon because there were a to of them to begin with they multiplied to become the majority. We always had the situation contained in Lebanon until the influx of the Palestinians out of Jordan when Yasser Arafat tried to overthrow the king and establish a base from which to fight Israel, kill the Jews and throw them into the sea, he failed to do so because of the dictatorship of the King, Jordan wasn't a democratic open-minded fair and tolerant society, we Lebanon, were only the, Christian country in the Middle East, the only country to accept the third wave of Palestinian refugees into the country. They were majority Muslim; they put their heads together with the Muslims in Lebanon and declared Holy War on the Christians. They used our...

Sid: Wait, why war with the Christians, Christians followed the teachings of Jesus, you are supposed to love and be tolerant, the Christians weren't causing them a problem, why war on the Christians?

Brigitte: No, the Christians were to causing them a problem, because like you said we Christians are taught to give, to love, to treat our neighbor the way we want to be treated, and this is how Lebanon operated as a democratic multi Judeo-Christian society, but what happened was Islam is an intolerant religion, so when you have intolerant people coming into society that shows them tolerance, we literally tolerated intolerance and allowed intolerance to take us over.

We judge our people, we reflected our standards, our Judeo-Christian standards of love, acceptance, tolerance, respect, multi-culturalism, diversity, like you said on people who did not value the same values we did and they used our democracy, our open-mindedness, our fairness, our tolerance against us to destroy democracy.

And I see the same signs happening in America today. We are seeing the god of tolerance in the United States allowing intolerance of people who are not tolerating our western system, who are trying to force their own point of view on the rest of us, including they do not agree with our freedom of speech, they do not agree with our freedom of religion and yet they are using our freedoms to get a foothold in our country.

Sid: And what you indicate they start out peace loving, for instance one of the things that upsets me a lot is there is a mantra in the press in the United States, Islam is a peace loving religion, is that true?

Brigitte: No, this is a false statement.

Islam is a violent religion; it is not a peaceful religion. The word Islam means submission, shalom means peace, but many times the Muslim lobby groups, and the Muslim talking heads, confuse the two together and they say,

"Well shalom, peace," it is not the same word.

Shalom means peace, but Islam means submission.

Sid: But wait a second, in the Koran I have heard Imams on television say the Koran talks about peace and they quote verses in the Koran.

Brigitte: There are verses in the Koran that talk about peace, those verses began when Mohammed was trying to appeal to the Jews to accept him as their last prophet. When Mohammed's own people rejected him in Mecca, he decided if he goes to Medina and appeals to the Jews to accept him you know he had to borrow some of their verses and this is why we see in the early verses of the Koran there is a lot of peaceful verses about the people of the book, this is when Mohammed was trying to recruit them, he went to Medina, when the Jews refused him this is when he declared all the wars against them and against the infidels and this is when Mohammed became a military man. So all the other verses, or the following verses of the Koran are violent verses calling for the destructions of Jews and Christians.

Sid: Tell me one verse in the Koran that is against Christians that you are referring to.

Brigitte: Well what I am going to say the verses they are too numerous to count, thousands, by the thousands, but especially in Sura Number 9, it is all about declaring war against the Christians and the Jews, but here is the interesting thing, in the Koran, in Islam, there is the law against lying, which I discuss in my book, "Because They Hate." Under the law, the Muslim is allowed to tell a lie even knowing that it is true, that he is telling a lie but knowing that he is forgiven by the Koran and here is why, because under the law, there is the Law of Obligation of the Koran, there are two verses contradicting each other, the latter verse wipes out the first verse and the latter verse becomes the truth.

Sid: So the question I have, and the question I have to you, is how can you have a long-term peace with someone that says lying is okay?
Don't go away we'll be right back to find out how Islam is infiltrating our prisons and our universities.

We'll be right back to, "It's Supernatural."

We now return to, "It's Supernatural."

Sid: Hello, Sid Roth here with Brigitte Gabriel, Brigitte, you were born in Lebanon and Lebanon was known as the Paris of the Middle East, it was known for its tolerance and multi-culturalism, such parallels between Lebanon and the United States but everything turned when Islam became the dominant religion and you and your family had to literally live in a bomb shelter for how many years?
Brigitte: Seven years.
Sid: Tell me about the time your mother was injured.
Brigitte: Well the war began in 1975 in Lebanon, and that's when my 911 happened to me, when our lives turned upside down. That's when the Muslims were attacking our town trying to take us over. We woke up from a dream life into a nightmare. We ended up living in a bomb shelter for seven years of our lives, fighting for our existence. While the world was asleep and no one paid attention it was Israel that came to aid the Christians of Lebanon. Lebanon, up until 1975 considered Israel the enemy because they followed, they thought if they go along with these mostly Arabic religions surrounding us, Arabic states, so that was buying them protection points you know Brownie points with the Arabic countries. Little did we know how much they resented us, we as infidels, so when the war started and the Muslims started massacre the Christians I lived in a little town in South Lebanon, a few people from my town went to Israel and begged for help, and Israel started coming in the middle of the night and helping the Christians and protecting the Christians, and this is how we survived while the rest of the Christian world was asleep, it was the Jews who came and shed their blood to defend the Christians of Lebanon. And this is how we survived until about 1982 when Israel invaded Lebanon and the only reason Israel invaded Lebanon was because Syria and Iran had gotten involved in the war.

And at that time we had eleven Muslim terrorist organizations operating out of Lebanon trying to overthrow Lebanese democracy, grab a hold of the country and create a base from which to attack Israel. So Israel started working with the Christians trying to help the Christians take back their democracy that would strengthen.
Israel invaded Lebanon and during that invasion the Muslims were shelling us frantically as they were retreating.

My mother became wounded and we had to take her to an Israeli hospital for treatment. For my mother it was a lifesaving experience, but for me it was a life changing experience.

Sid: In what way?

Brigitte: That was the first time I was in Israel by myself, my mother unconscious going from one surgery to another in a hospital where I was able to see the Jewish people, the way they were treating and reacting to the Lebanese wounded, and even their enemy.

My mother was wounded and we had to take her to Israeli treatment, to an Israeli hospital and I ended up spending 22 days in that hospital, what I saw was amazing, I saw Israeli doctors treating Lebanese wounded people in the emergency room, treating terrorists brought in from Lebanon, Muslims, Palestinians, they didn't see religion, they didn't religious affiliation or nationality.

Sid: I mean if they had an Israeli wounded, and a Palestinian wounded, if the Palestinian, you say in your book, if the Palestinian was in worse shape they would take the Palestinian over the Israeli?

Brigitte: Absolutely.

Sid: What would have happened in your country if it were reversed?

Brigitte: First of all even if a Jew made it to the hospital he would be lynched, and thrown to his death, and butchered as screams of joy would echo through the hospital and down the surrounding streets.

Shouts of Allah Akbar would echo

because they killed an infidel or a filthy Jew.

I experienced a human quality in Israel that I knew for fact my culture will not be able to show their enemy in their most trying moments the way the Jews did.

I realized that the Arabic world feeds its population fabricated lies about the Jews that are so far from reality.

I was in the hospital for 22 days and during those days people would come, Jews came from all over Israel knowing that there were Lebanese wounded in the hospital, bringing baklava, and bringing foods and bringing chocolates and telling the Lebanese, "How can we help you, what can we do for you, our homes are your homes, just let us know how we can serve you."

It was an unbelievable scene.

One of the ladies with my mother who was wounded from Lebanon, she was a Muslim, she was in the hospital for ten days and the Jews had saved her life.

And as the doctors would do their roundup and even one day after ten days she has been in the hospital, after they checked on her and they left, she looked at them and she would say "I hate you all, I wish you were dead."

And the first time in my life I experienced evil, I saw evil, because when you are unable to be grateful for those who saved your life you have no soul.

And Muslims are raised from their mother's milk to hate the Jews, they are raised not only because their culture teaches them to hate the Jews, but also the Koran itself, the holy books that they read, the Koran, the Haddiz, the Sera, Mohammad specifically even in his dying bed, his last words were urging his followers to fight the Jews until the end.

Sid: But wait a second, I know as a fact that there are Muslims that are minchis, it's a Hebrew word, are good people, and that there are Muslims like that, so we're talking about just a fringe group or are we talking about someone that really follows the Koran does the things you are saying.

Brigitte: Well there are millions of moderate Muslims in the world, there are millions of wonderful souls who do not want to kill anybody, who want to live their lives just like you and me, want to raise their children, educate their children, they want their women to work, those are the wonderful people that we are not talking about.

We are talking about the radicals right now who are the devout Muslims, the good Muslims, what we call today as radicals are not some of those who hijack the religion, the radicals are following their religion by the word and following in the footsteps of the prophet Mohammed.

Sid: So you are saying to me that if someone does, if someone is a Muslim and doesn't follow the Koran they can be moderate and they can be good people.

Brigitte: Absolutely.

Sid: However if they follow the Koran they may smile when they are in the minority, but when they are in the majority we are in big trouble.

You know we didn't get to what is going on in the infiltration of the universities and the prisons, don't go away we will get to that in the next segment.

We now return to, "It's Supernatural."

Sid: Hello Sid Roth here with Brigitte Gabriel.
And I am so excited to find out this information, it is so amazing to me, Brigitte you were telling me that in our American universities they are being infiltrated, tell me how?

Brigitte: We are being infiltrated big time in our universities by Saudi Arabia and gulf sheiks sending millions of dollars and buying influence in our universities.

And our universities are just lapping up those funds.
What has been happening is Saudi Arabia has been able to explode a program called a Title Six Program that was instituted by our government after World War Two to teach American students about foreign languages and foreign culture so they may be an asset to our country.
But with the oil wealth coming out of the Middle East, the Saudis wanted to spread their radical ideology had been funding, sending millions to universities setting up Middle East departments and political science departments and appointing professors, giving them tenure, who hate America, hate Israel,
and are literally brain washing our children.
And the extent of Saudi peddling is incredible.

They are giving money by the millions,
Harvard University twenty million dollars, Georgetown University twenty-two million dollars, and actually since my book was written and I discussed the twenty million to Georgetown, they just gave another twenty some million dollars just this month to Georgetown.
So you are seeing the influx of the money and it is not only...

Sid: Is that the reason that universities like Columbia and Harvard have such known radicals speaking there?

Brigitte: Absolutely.

When they receive millions of funds coming from shady sources in the Middle East they are just wanting to keep the peace and wanting to keep that money coming over.
And when you have Saudis sending their children, and you have Muslim countries sending their children paying top dollar tuitions, to Columbia, to Harvard, to all universities across the nation, by the way this is not a problem only the Ivy League Schools; this is a problem from community colleges all the way up to the Ivy League.

So what we are seeing now is a new generation of Americans who think that we are the problem, America is the source of the problems in the world, Israel is the source of the problem, and the rest of the world is oppressed because of our success and our wealth.

It is amazing.

You know people in America work.

Sid: Here is what doesn't make sense to me, let's take Harvard University that has all these millions coming from radical Islam to build buildings, centers, endowments and things like that, they have so many Jewish students, so many prominent Jewish graduates, why do these Jewish graduates allow these radicals to speak at that university?

Brigitte: In the name of intolerance,
in the name of bending the other way,
they overcompensate because they are Jews.
That is the problem we are seeing.

Because it is Jewish attorneys who go and fight for these Muslims to have the rights, for example Harvard just instituted a month ago gym ours just for Muslim students where if you and I have a son and we are paying fifty thousand dollars a year for our son to go to Harvard, and in his tuition it is include that he can use the gym he is not allowed to use the gym certain days because it is only allotted times for the Muslims.

We are seeing segregation on our college campuses that is not now limited to the student housing where Muslim women want to pray by themselves in a little group in their dorms, they are now enforcing the segregation on the facilities that are used by the larger student body.

Sid: Mosque in America.

I understand in London there are more mosques than churches for the first time in history, in the United States we have many, many mosques, what is going on in these mosques?

Brigitte: What is so concerning about these mosques is the hate literature that has been found in these mosques.

We all know that Saudi Arabia supports and finances ninety percent of the mosques throughout the world, so that goes as well in the United States, and an undercover study which discussed in my book done by Freedom House where they went undercover into some of the most prominent mosques and Islamic institutions in the United States and they collected books in Arabic provided by the government of Saudi Arabia that teach Muslims living in America how to deal with infidels living in infidel land. And in all these books of publications they exhort Muslims to hate them for their religion, meanings us; Christians and Jews, to hate for Allah's sake, to oppose them in every way, maintain a wall of resentment against them.

So while we are teaching love they are teaching hatred.

They say that democracy is responsible for all the horrible wars of the twentieth century, and that attractive names like democracy, justice, freedom and brotherhood...

Sid: Last question, cell groups in America?

Are there many?

Brigitte: There are many cell groups in the United States.

Sid: Islamic cell groups?

Brigitte: Hamas, Hezbola, Islamic Jihad, they are all up and operating in the United States.

Hamas which people think is an Israeli problem, Hamas has cells in over forty states in the United States.

Hezbola which people think is a Lebanese problem,

Hezbola has eleven cells in American oil, Islamic Jihad, Samuel Aridian who was a professor at the University of Florida, who was convicted now expelled out of the country, was the head of Islamic Jihad in the United States raising millions of dollars to fund Palestinian suicide bombers to go into Israel and commit suicide bombing.

This is the extent of the infiltration into our society.

My book, "Because They Hate," reveals such information, I am giving you just the tip of the iceberg, when you read what is happening in our country you realize while we not only need to pray for God to protect our country, we also need to get involved, become active, become patriotic vigilant Americans, watching our communities.

Sid: And you know what is even more important.

With everything happening in the world today, if you do not have intimacy with God, I am going to read one Psalm of David, Psalm 91, that has a promise of protection for every evil that will come against you.

This is for you right now:

If you dwell in the secret place of the most high, you shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. (Boy that sounds good) Say of the Lord, he is my refuge, my fortress, my God, in Him I will trust.

Surely he shall deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the perilous pestilence, he shall cover you with his feathers and under his wings you shall take refuge. His truth shall be your shield and buckler, you shall not be afraid of the terror by night nor the arrow that flies by day, not the pestilence that walks in darkness, nor the destruction that lays waste at noonday.

A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it shall not come near you!

Only with your eyes shall you look and see the reward of the wicked because you have made the Lord who is your refuge, even the Most High your dwelling place.

No evil shall befall you nor shall any plague come near your dwelling, for he shall give his angels charge over you to keep you in all your ways.

In their hands they shall bear you up lest you dash your foot against a stone, you shall tread upon the lion, the cobra, the young lion, the serpent, you shall trample them under your feet.

Because he has set his love upon you, therefore he shall deliver you.

He will set you on high because you have known his name, you shall call upon him and he will answer you.

He will be with you in trouble, he will deliver you, he will honor you, with long life will he satisfy you and show you his salvation.

Why? Because you have known his name.

because you have known him.

It is not religion, it is not tradition, it is knowing God, intimacy with God.

Without intimacy with God what you have just heard you have reason to fear, but there is no fear when you are so entwined with God by believing in the Name of Jesus, that he has washed away your sins, and make him your Lord and ask him to live inside of you, 91 Psalm is yours.
