

On It's Supernatural: God supernaturally downloads His words into the mouth of Andre Ashby whenever Andre sings. § I must behold You, God § § I'm crying out, I'm crying out, I'm crying out § § God, hear the cry of my heart § § Oh, the Spirit and the Bride say "Come!" § § The Spirit and the Bride say "Come, Lord Jesus!" § § Capture me for only You §

Can ancient secrets of the supernatural be rediscovered? Do angels exist? Is there life after death? Are healing miracles real? Can you get supernatural help from another dimension? Has the future been written in advance? Sid Roth has spent thirty years researching the strange world of the supernatural. Join Sid on this edition of It's Supernatural.

SID: Hello, Sid Roth here with Andre Ashby. Welcome to my world, where it's naturally supernatural. It's the rarified air of heaven. You're going to hear music today that's not just music, it's music from heaven. It's called prophetic music that releases such an atmosphere of heaven. You are going to be so excited you tuned into this show. Andre, I don't mean this with disrespect, but you didn't stand a chance of surviving. You were born from a rape; your mother rejected you, you went to stay with relatives, they were alcoholic. Then you ended up with a great-grandmother. How old was she?

ANDRE: She was probably about 82 when I moved in with her.

SID: And how old were you?

ANDRE: I was 11.

SID: Did she give you much supervision?

ANDRE: No, I basically raised myself.

SID: You had an experience with God, and I have to believe if you had not had that experience with God, I would not be talking to you today. You would've been in jail, in prison, in an insane asylum, or dead.

ANDRE: Definitely. When I was 4, the Lord came to me in dreams. It was the same dream repeatedly. I would walk into a room and there'd be a white wall with a window. I would look through the window and the Lord would speak to me over and over "I will never leave you. I will never forsake you. I will be with you always."

SID: Had you ever heard that? Did anyone ever tell you those words before?

ANDRE: No. My uncle and aunt who raised me until I was 11 were alcoholics, so they never talked about God.

SID: You started going to a Seventh Day Adventist church, but something strange happened. When you would sing, what would people say?

ANDRE: People would tell me "Andre, when you were singing, the Devil tried to get me." In an Adventist church, they didn't really believe much in the moving of the Holy Spirit. One lady said to me "When you sing, it was like electricity hit me from the top of my head to the souls of my feet." I didn't know that was the Holy Spirit, so my response to God was "God, why are You letting the Devil get people while I'm singing?" I didn't understand.

SID: You tried to get a woman named Sherrie to come to your church. Sherrie had that same presence on her that you had, especially when you would sing.

ANDRE: Sherrie was a Church of God in Christ evangelist. I met her at work. I'd just gotten back from Adventist college and got a job at Walter and Reed. When I met Sherrie, I could feel the presence of the Lord around her, but it confused me, because I was taught if you went to church on Sunday you really didn't love God, you were just going through the motions. So I thought it was my job to get Sherrie out of Sunday church and into the Adventist church. What happened, I began to go to church with her. It was like a three year period of me pulling out of the Adventist church and starting to go to church on Saturday and Sunday.

SID: You actually had to have a dream to get free to leave the congregation.

ANDRE: Definitely. I would go to church on Sunday, and I was terrified, because I was taught that if you leave the Adventist church, you're going to hell, because you're leaving the truth. Every Sunday I'd walk into church and get terrified. One night I went home and had a dream. I was walking through a really scary place in Kansas City. Kansas City is where I'm from. A few years ago Kansas City had the third highest murder rate in the nation, so I was terrified in this dream. This guy walked in front of me. He was this tall, blonde guy. I'd never seen him before, but I knew instinctively to follow him. I followed him through this real dangerous place in the city, and we walked inside this house. It was a brown house with a brown, screened in porch. I waited outside on the porch. I wanted to thank him, because I felt like he saved my life. He came back out with a folded white piece of paper, and he handed it to me. I opened up the paper and it said "In all your ways acknowledge Me, and I'll direct your path." I woke up from the dream and knew that it was ok to leave the Adventist church; that the Lord was leading me.

SID: You really needed a dream like that. Seventh Day Adventists say that if you don't worship on Saturday, you're not going to go to heaven. So you needed something supernatural. The truth of the matter is that the worship is not a day, it's a person. Now God never changed the Sabbath. It's Saturday. But I love the idea that Christianity picked Sunday for the Sabbath, so I can relax with God, not because I have to, but because I want to, on Saturday, if that makes sense to Andre. It's a matter of freedom. You were at a conference once with Jim Gall, and he prophesied over you.

ANDRE: It was right after I left the Adventist church and went to Kansas City Fellowship. It was my first Sunday there. Only a couple of friends from school were with me. They were the only ones that knew me. Jim Gall was teaching on the prophetic, and at the end he said "You, what's your name?" This had never happened to me before, and I go "Uhh, my name's Andre." He goes "Do you know what the prophetic song of the Lord is?" I'm like "No." He said "Well God says it's in you. You're going to sing it today."

SID: Nothing like putting you on the spot.

ANDRE: Definitely on the spot, because I had tried to write a song for a year, and I couldn't come up with words. As I'm walking up front I'm going "God, You've got to do something, or this is going to be terrible." Jim began to sing over me, singing stuff like "You're one of the new breed" and all this other stuff that I didn't know what he meant. He stopped, took the microphone, and said "Now you sing" and stuck it in my mouth. As I was standing there with the mic, I began to shake, which I'd never experienced before. Then suddenly something came up out of my belly. I could feel it coming up, and when I opened up my mouth, I began to sing. My friends who brought me from school fell out on the floor. People all over the room began to weep uncontrollably. This went on for 20 minutes, Jim and I singing back and forth.

SID: I'll tell you what, when we come back from the break, I'm going to put Andre on the spot. I'm going to put a demand on his gift, because his songs come from heaven. Don't go away, we'll be right back.

We'll be right back to It's Supernatural.

We now return to It's Supernatural.

SID: Hello, Sid Roth here with Andre Ashby. When you went to Korea, you saw something that's almost hard to believe. In the Bible it talks about the glory of God, but it's a manifest presence. What did you see in Korea?

ANDRE: I was over there teaching on worship, and I looked in the back of the room and saw a cloud coming through the back wall. My response to God was "Ok God, that's cool. What do You want me to do with that?" He said "I want you to stand up the people in the back", so I did. When I stood them up, the pastor was standing in the back. Her feet came off the ground, she flew backwards, slammed into the glass door and slid down. I'm glad it didn't break. Another lady hit the ground and rolled from one side of the church to the other. The Lord said "Andre, I want you to stand the people up in the front. Ask them to see if they can see the cloud." So I turned to my translator and said "Would you ask the people if they can see the cloud in the room." As she was sharing, suddenly her eyes were opened. She saw the cloud, and everyone in the room saw the cloud.

SID: I'm going to put a demand on the gift that Andre has. I'm going to ask him to sing a song from heaven, something not prepared, just for you. And I'm going to believe that cloud, whether you see it or not, is going to enter you. You're going to be healed, you're going to be set free, and most of all, you're going to have an experience with God. Would you sing now?

ANDRE: § Rejoice oh barren one § § For I have heard your cry § § And I long to be gracious to you § § I long to show you how much I love you § § So be glad, I'm on your side § § I Am your God § § And I know what's best for you § § So be of good courage § § It's all going to work out for your favor § § No matter what the circumstances say § § No matter what it looks like § § I'm your God, and I'm on your side §

SID: My goodness, it is tangible. But let me ask you something. Sometimes you sing in karaoke-type bars. Tell me about the time the gold came on you.

ANDRE: I was in a place called The Duplex. Actually it's a real cool place, because all the Broadway singers hang out there. One night someone requested I sing "I Believe I Can Fly." I said "Sure, I can do that." I was sitting down, and I looked at my hands and arms, and suddenly they're covered with gold dust. I went "Wow", being the man of faith that I am, "when was I around glitter?" When I realized I wasn't around glitter, I said "God, what are You doing here?" He goes "I've anointed you for this." I believe the Lord wants to change our concept of what church is, and evangelism, and take God out of the box, and expect Him to move outside the walls of the church.

SID: There's such a presence of God right now. What else is God telling you?

ANDRE: I feel like the season we're living in, people can be living in fear. I feel the Lord is saying He wants to give true peace, His shalom. That in the midst of the turmoil, God is the only constant thing in the universe, and He wants to show Himself strong. That in a time of great disorder, God is going to bring order to peoples' lives and reveal His tangible presence to them.

SID: You know what's going on right now? I literally am feeling what some of you are feeling. What you're feeling right now, I'm feeling this right now. It's God's compassion, God's heart, God's love for you. I'm feeling this. If you could only feel how much God loves you, how important you are to God, how special you are, how there's a destiny on your life. There's a purpose. God is in agreement with your destiny. Now you have to get in agreement with God. He's done all the work. All you have to do is grab His big hand, and He'll take you along the rest of the way. But the God of religion has turned you off. I want you to meet the God of the universe. He sent His Son, Yeshua, Hebrew for Jesus, who died in your place. If you will believe that His death, blood, and resurrection totally destroyed everything separating you from God - all of your sins - if you will believe that Jesus died for you, and repent of your sins, tell Him you're sorry, and ask Him to live inside of you, you'll know God. You know the God of religion, now know God. Much better to know God than the God of religion. Believe this or not, I know it's difficult, but a young man was with an atheist, and asked for a sign, and he literally began to fly. I mean really fly. Don't go away. We'll be right back after this word.

We'll be right back to It's Supernatural.

We now return to It's Supernatural.

SID: Hello. Sid Roth here with Andre Ashby. I want to hear about this young man that can fly. When I say fly, I'm not saying being a pilot. I mean fly, like fly! Tell me about him.

ANDRE: Every January I do a youth retreat called Fire And Ice. It's in the mountains between Seattle and Spokane. Parents always send kids up there who are rebellious and stuff like that. There was a young guy there who was an atheist. It's always incredible things that happen. This young guy said "Ok God, if you're real, then have somebody fly." There was another young man there who was 16, named Levi. He'd just had a brain tumor removed and had that halo take off. All of a sudden - he was worshipping God - literally, his feet came off the ground and he flew backwards. But that's not the only thing. There was a door there with a safety lock. You have to hit the door, push to open it. Before he got to the door, the doors swung open, and he landed in the middle of the field in the snow. He flew over all the sidewalk, the parking lot, and landed in the field in the snow. Needless to say, the young guy who asked is not an atheist anymore.

SID: Needless to say. Very quickly, tell me about the instant supernatural weight loss.

ANDRE: Oh yeah, that was fun. I was in Minneapolis speaking at a prophetic conference. Usually the Lord doesn't tell me what He's going to do, but the night before, He said "I want you to stand women up and repent to them as a man for false expectations of beauty. Two things are going to happen: women are going to supernaturally lose weight, and some are going to go through deliverance." So I stood the women up, and I repented to them as a man. Women all over the room hit the deck going through deliverance, and women literally lost weight. They came up to me later and said "Andre, look!" and started pulling off their clothes. There was this much room. It was pretty wild.

SID: Do you believe that there is anything too difficult for God?

ANDRE: No, He's the God of the impossible.

SID: I'm going to ask you to go to the set, if you would go there right now. I'm going to have Andre sing. There is nothing impossible for God. All things are possible for those who believe. This is a prophetic song that Andre's going to play the piano and sing to you. I believe that if you'll open up your heart, open up your spirit, just open yourself up to God... Someone's neck and back was just healed. There's such a rush, it's like a rush of a mighty river when Andre plays. Wherever you are watching this TV... I sure hope some of you are watching in bars right now, because if you're in a bar, there's going to be a flood of the tangible, manifest presence of the Living God. There's going to be a flood of peace like you have never... And healing, and miracles. Let's go to Andre Ashby right now.
