SID: Hello. Sid Roth here. Welcome to my world where it's naturally supernatural. My guest, Todd White, was shot point blank in a drug deal that went bad. Point blank. Not one bullet touched him. It was almost as if there was an invisible shield. And then he heard a voice. But Todd, you were raised in a home where you had to be sent out to a boys school.

TODD: Yeah.

SID: Tell me about that.

TODD: I was, at like eleven and a half, my parents had been divorced, and I was rowdy child. And my mom worked for a pizza shop, one of three jobs. And a guy was a Mason in there. So I grew up in Masonic homes in Elizabethtown.

SID: Is that where you started on drugs?

TODD: I started, yup, and about six months after that, I started using, at 12 years old, I started getting high. And then it just escalated.

SID: And you went into the Marines and you went AWOL.

TODD: Yeah.

SID: And you ended up in prison. I mean, you had a big mess going on.

TODD: I sure did.

SID: Then you get married.

TODD: Yeah.

SID: You didn't get married, but you had a child.

TODD: Well I did. We actually, I got extradited, kicked out of the Marine Corp, bad conduct discharged, the whole nine yards. And I met a girl on a blind date at a bar one night, and I kind of tricked her into having a child. We actually had a child together and we lived together for nine years. And I was an atheist and a drug dealer, a drug addict.

SID: How long were you a drug addict?

TODD: Twenty-two years. Twenty-two years.

SID: So you went looking for drugs one night.

TODD: Yeah.

SID: Tell me about that.

TODD: Yeah. I actually, I went out. I had actually asked Jesus to come into my heart about four and half months prior, but I never got into the Word. I never understood that that was gonna transform me in relationship with Jesus. I went out one night to get some crack, and I picked up this kid on a back street. I had lost my girlfriend and my daughter, who had chased me out in town. I picked him up and once I had the drugs in my hand, I told him that I was a police officer, and I started to read him his rights. And he started to freak out.

SID: You were conning him because you didn't have money for the drugs.

TODD: That's it. That's it. And I pulled over. I told him to step out of the car and put his hands on the hood. And when he stepped out of the car to put his hands on the hood, I hit the gas and he unloaded a 9-millimeter at me. I don't know how many bullets it was, but I know it was enough that I shouldn't be here right now. And I heard an audible say to me, "I took those bullets for you. Are you ready to live for me yet?" And I went and I actually did the drugs. I didn't get high that night. And it was so weird because they were very real drugs. I had smoked crack and I knew what they were. I went home. My girlfriend was at home and she hated me. She was ready for me to leave. She was an atheist also, and she, I had never represented Christ in me saying that I need Jesus. So she said, "You need to leave." I said, "I actually do need to leave." And that night, I left the house. Three days later, I went to a place called Teen Challenge. I was in Teen Challenge for a two-month period of time. I had a radical encounter with Jesus three nights in a row, and he told me to go home.

SID: You know, we can't speed this up. It's just so amazing. When you first went into Teen Challenge you started having bad dreams.

TODD: Horrible.

SID: And then you met a street man.

TODD: Yeah.

SID: Tell me about that.

TODD: I had horrible nightmares every night. Every night when I'd go to sleep I'd be attacked. It was the only place where Satan had access to my soul, which is your mind, will and emotions. And he had access to that. At night when I'd go to sleep I'd have these horrible nightmares. So every night, my roommates in Teen Challenge were petrified of me because I'd run around the room screaming and yelling, and hollering, and hiding underneath the bed. It was just horrible.

So one day I'm across the street at Teen Challenge in Harrisburg at the induction center. And I had my guitar. I didn't know how to play, but I was just strumming the strings. A homeless man came up pushing a shopping cart. And I looked and he had army fatigues on. They were like floods. He had swim goggles on his head, sneakers on. He's pushing a shopping cart.

SID: A real character.

TODD: A real character. The people that we're actually suppose to love and not just walk passed. And I looked at him and I said, "Man, do you know how much Jesus loves you?" And he pulled his shopping car over and he said, "I do. Do you know how much he loves you?" So he started to talk to me, and he told me that I had a demon. And he didn't know me. He didn't know where I was from. And he sat there and he talked to me. And I didn't get upset. The guy that I was with from Teen Challenge, the other man that was in the program, he actually walked across the street mad because he told him he had a demon and he didn't want to hear that. But this guy knew something about me, but there's no way he knew. And I didn't understand what words of knowledge were or anything like that. I was brand new. I had no idea. So he starts to preach the Gospel to me like I had never heard. And I said to him, I said, "Man, why are you out here? Why aren't you preaching somewhere?" And he said, "Twenty years ago, the Lord told me to pick up my cross and follow Him, and I've been pushing this shopping cart," it was full of Bibles, "across the nation from mission to mission talking to anybody who would listen." And he said, "We're gonna pray and this thing is not touching you. This thing is leaving you." So he prayed and I didn't feel anything. I went back in. They kind of made fun of me because I was talking to the homeless guy across the street. But when I turned around he wasn't there. I had no idea where he went. All I know is that I went back in there. My life seemed to be the same, but I went in there and went through my day. And that night, I had a dream that I was in a valley, and in a valley with a broad bottom to it with steep sides. And I went and it started shaking in my dream. And I thought these demons were coming to chase me again. And instead of them coming to chase me, I heard a voice say, "Behold, I'll never leave you nor forsake you. I'm always with you." And immediately I woke up. And I went into the prayer room that I had programmed myself, because I had made the commitment to go into this place. And if there was really a God, I was going to find him. So I had to leave everything. So I was in there, and I'd go into the prayer room everyday, and the Bible was kind of hidden. I didn't understand it. I had ADHD my whole life, so I never read a book. The Bible is the first book that I could understand. It just so happens to be the one that's most important for me to understand. And I opened it up to Psalm 23, and I saw, "Tho I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I shall fear no evil." And I woke up immediately. I came out of this thing that I was in when I was in the prayer room, and I'm like, "That's God! This was God talking to me!" What I mean I woke up, I was like I got lost in that section of scripture just for a second. And I went through my day. I didn't say anything to anybody. The same dream, the second night, the same valley.

SID: It was the third night. What did God tell you?

TODD: The third night, it got so amazing because there was a light that went from behind me the whole way down this valley, and there was a voice that came from behind me, and He put His hand on my shoulder, and He said, "Do not fear. I will never leave you nor forsake you. I'm always with you. This addiction will never touch you again.” And I woke up. They told me to go home. They actually said, “Go home.”

SID: But you hadn't completed the Teen Challenge program.

TODD: No. I was only there for two months, 'cause it's never the program that changes you. It's Christ in the program.

SID: I know. But they don't let you go after two months.

TODD: No. They were actually, the thing about Teen Challenge is you have access to leave. It's an open door. But once you say you're gonna leave, you have to leave.

SID: So you leave. You got back to your girlfriend and your daughter.

TODD: Yeah.

SID: And she hates your guts.

TODD: Right. But she had started to come to Christ before I was in Teen Challenge. But when I was in there, she had started to give herself fully to believing that God could transform me. So I come home and we got married four days later in the middle of the church service. We just did it right in between.

SID: Ah!

TODD: God is so amazing.

SID: Okay, so that was about four and a half years ago.

TODD: Yeah.

SID: What kind of marriage do you have now?

TODD: I have the most incredible wife and the most incredible marriage, where we have never been closer. And my wife is amazing and I love her. Because in the Bible it says to love your wife like Christ loved the church. And that's an unconditional love.

SID: What about your daughter that never knew her father outside of a drug addict?

TODD: Yeah. God has by His grace an amazing mercy, has allowed my daughter to never look back but to only look forward. And any time we look back is to only look at it as a part, never apart from the blood of Jesus and the testimony of what he's done. So now she knows that her dad always keeps his word, he never lies, and he always follows through with everything, and that God has completely transformed, not just her daddy, but her life, her mommy's life. Now we have also Zoe, who is my littlest one. She's gonna be three in June. All of our lives Zoe is out there with me. Destiny is out there with me. And when we go into Walmart we pray for people. And Zoe prays, “Ally, be gone in Jesus’ name.”

SID: Todd, you know, it just dawned on me. When that homeless man who disappeared, I think it could have been an angel. I believe somehow you received an impartation. He has an impartation of love that is so amazing, of miracles, of words of knowledge. Don’t go away. We’ll be right back after this word.

We’ll be right back to It’s Supernatural.

We now return to It’s Supernatural.

SID: Hello. Sid Roth here with Todd White, and I love it. Todd receives such an impartation. I mean, you lived for the devil for all those years as a drug addict, and you really live for God now. I mean, not this façade that’s called “religion” or called “Christianity.” I mean reality. You go out on the streets because you love people. I want you to see Todd out on the streets in action.

TODD: You’re having a hard time getting this. Like you’re, like I see I see your head going, “What?” It will be good, man. It will be real good. Okay, let me see your hands. I command you right now, in Jesus’ name, let him go. Every bit of pain let him go. Every muscle, every tendon. Father, I thank you in Jesus’ name, every disk right now, let him go. Man, I’m hearing this. You get back pain all the time. You get it constantly. It’s a constant. Let me see your feet. It’s throwing your back out. Wait. The left one, right? It’s at least an inch short, right?

MAN 1: Yeah, ‘cause I broke it.

TODD: You broke it and they put it back together, and they didn’t put all the pieces back. Daddy, thank you in Jesus’ name. Left leg, I command you grow right now, in Jesus’ name.

WOMAN 2: [laughing]

TODD: That is amazing, dude.

WOMAN 2: Check your back.

TODD: Yeah, check your back. It’s done.

WOMAN 2: How did you do that?

WOMAN 2: Jesus did it.

TODD: Here’s what I did. I just prayed in Jesus’ name, and Jesus healed him right now. Yeah. Cartilage, I command you to be restored in Jesus’ name right now. Move your ankle. Stomp on it. Stomp on it.

MAN 1: Oh! Yeah!

TODD: Isn't that good? In Jesus' name, Lord you're amazing with this love we thank you. You're gonna feel a warmth go your chest right now. Jesus, thank you. Jesus' name. You feel that. It's like a real heat in your chest right now. [laugh] Do you have something that like is--

MAN 2: My eye.

TODD: What's wrong with it?

MAN 2: I got shot.

TODD: You got shot in the eye?

MAN 2: Yes.

TODD: Is it blind?

MAN 2: Almost.

TODD: No way.

MAN 2: Yeah, like 50 percent.

TODD: Fifty percent blind.

MAN 2: Yes.

TODD: So you would know if that thing opened up.

MAN 2: Oh yeah.

TODD: Come on, man. This will be good. We're gonna pray for your eye.

MAN 2: Please do.

TODD: Your right eye?

MAN 2: My right eye?

TODD: Right eye.

MAN 2: How did you know? I didn't tell you.

TODD: No. Just hold on. Just say, "Jesus."

MAN 2: Jesus.

TODD: We thank you.

MAN 2: We thank you.

TODD: For a brand new eye.

MAN 2: For a brand new eye.

TODD: I will command you see.

MAN 2: I will command you see.

TODD: Right now.

MAN 2: Right now.

TODD: One hundred percent.

MAN 2: One hundred percent.

TODD: Eye open.

MAN 2: Eye open.

TODD: In Jesus' name.

MAN 2: In Jesus' name. Significantly better.

TODD: Yeah.

MAN 2: It really is.

TODD: It's gonna be a hundred percent. Let's pray again. We've had 50 percent.

MAN 2: We've had 50 percent.

TODD: We're at 80 percent.

MAN 2: We're at 80 percent.

TODD: And we're thanking you for a finished job.

MAN 2: And we're thanking you for a finished job.

TODD: Eye open.

MAN 2: Eye open.

TODD: In Jesus' name.

MAN 2: In Jesus' name. Yeah.

TODD: Open it.

MAN 2: Much better.

TODD: What's up, dude? What do you see?

MAN 2: It really is.

TODD: What are you seeing?

MAN 2: I'm seeing almost full vision right now.

TODD: Right on, dude. Okay.

MAN 2: Yeah.

TODD: So it's not completely free yet.

MAN 2: No, not yet.

TODD: Okay. Come on, man, one more time. Open

MAN 2: Open.

TODD: Right now.

MAN 2: Right now.

TODD: Full vision.

MAN 2: Full vision.

TODD: Open it up.

MAN 2: You kidding me?

TODD: Come on, dude!

MAN 2: You kidding me right now?

TODD: No, dude. It's your eye. What do you see?

MAN 2: It's 100 percent.

TODD: It really is. I guarantee it is. And it's a hundred percent right now.

MAN 2: It really is.

TODD: What do you think of that?

MAN 2: It's unbelievable.

TODD: That's amazing.

MAN 2: It really is.

SID: Todd, that is so wonderful. But that is normal. Does this happen often to you?

TODD: Everyday.

SID: Tell me about that man in the wheelchair that had the rods, just briefly.

TODD: Oh okay. I was down at VCU. I was down at a church down in Richmond. And I was getting ready, I had just come to the church. It was my first day. I had the lapel mike on, getting ready to preach and share whatever God was putting in my heart, and the pastor is getting ready to hand me the mike and say, "Okay, here's Todd." And I heard a voice in my heart, not audibly, a thought, "Run out of the church now." So I ran out of the church. I just ran. And the people were like, okay, the guy is leaving. What's going on? I go down to the corner and I see a man coming across the street, and the man is in a wheelchair. So he comes across the street, and I said to him, I say, "Hey buddy, how are you?" And he said, "Oh, I'm okay." He says, "What do you want?" I said, "I don't want anything. I just see that you're in a wheelchair. Why are you in it?" He said, "Well like 30 years ago, back in 1976," so it would be longer than that, "I fell off a bridge and I shattered my leg and actually really hurt myself. So there's two steel rods going from my thigh to my shin bone," on each side of his knee, so it holds the leg in. And now his knee has gotten solid with calcium the whole way through because he hasn't bent his leg. So I said, "Man," I said, "God can heal your knee." He said, "Well I don't believe that." I said, "Well I'm not interested in whether you believe it or not. I'm not trying to convince you right now. Look let me pray for your knee." He goes, "Well I broke my ribs a couple days ago. I just fell and my ribs are broken and I'm in severe pain." I said, "Well I need to pray for your ribs then, okay?" "Don't you touch my ribs," he said. And I reached in and put my hand on his ribs, and I said, "In Jesus' name, ribs, I command you be healed right now." And all of sudden he just looked at me and his eyes got big. I said, "Move your ribs around." He goes, "All the pain is gone." And the ribs came together right there. So now the man is a little less combative. And I said to him, he's a homeless man, and I said to him, I said, "Man," I said, "Come on, you gotta let me pray for your knee.” He goes, “It ain’t gonna change anything.” And now he’s less fighting it, but he’s like, he’s got almost like a question, “It ain’t gonna change anything,” like that, because now his ribs are healed. So we prayed for his knees and prayed, and my lapel mike is on in the church. So now the church, the people are starting to come out.

SID: They’re all hearing.

TODD: They’re all starting to come out. Yeah. It’s so good. And so I said, “Come on, in Jesus’ name we pray.” And nothing happened. And he said, he just looked at me like, “I told ya.” We prayed again, and all of a sudden, he bent it just a tiny bit. And then the third and fourth time we just kept hitting it and hitting it, and hitting it. The Word is a hammer. You pound on that thing and keep on hitting it, and keep on hitting it. So all of a sudden his knee bent and he freaked out. He goes, “I’ve never seen it do that before! It can’t bend. It has metal in there.” So he stands up and gets out of the wheelchair, and his back is bent over. His back is just like that. And I said to him, I said, “What’s wrong with your back?” He said, “I broke my back when the fall.” So now his knee, but his knee is bending, so we just prayed for his back. And he stood straight up right there on the street, just right there on the corner. And then he bent over and touched the ground with his hands and walked.

SID: Do you realize what a miracle that is?

TODD: It’s amazing.

SID: Everything you told me, but especially the metal rods.

TODD: Yeah.

SID: I mean, how does he bend his knees with metal rods?

TODD: That’s it. We have seen people where we’ve prayed for people and they’ve gone back to the doctor and the metal is gone, and it’s not there any more. And that’s a real good way to get to a doctor’s heart, because they put it in.

SID: You know, one of the things that you taught me, Todd taught me something that is so phenomenal. When I pray for the sick people, sometimes I have a cop out and I say to myself, “Oh, they just don’t have any faith.” But what did you teach me?

TODD: Well it says, “These signs follow those that believe.” It doesn’t say, “These signs follow those being prayed for.” So the believing believer, the one that’s praying is responsible fully and completely for that person being healed. I can’t afford to depend on their faith. How are we gonna touch the witches? How are we gonna touch Muslims? How are we gonna touch Hindus? See, I don’t go up and run from witches or run from Muslims. I love them. I want to hug a witch because I know that God will touch them.

SID: Your faith, you made a statement, he said, “My faith trumps their unbelief.”

TODD: That's true.

SID: love it. Don't go away. We'll be right back.

We'll be right back to It's Supernatural.

We now return to It's Supernatural.

SID: Hello. Sid Roth here with Todd White. And Todd, I am overwhelmed with your chutzpah. Chutzpah is a Hebrew. It means "nerve." But you had nerve for the devil. Now you have nerve for God. Let's take a look at it right now.

TODD: Okay.

WOMAN: I go to school for [unintelligible] science.

TODD: Wow.

WOMAN: And pretty much, I believe in evolution.

TODD: Right.

WOMAN: But I believe God started evolution for a reason.

TODD: Right.

WOMAN: Because there has to be scientific evidence for everything.

TODD: Which one of your backs is messed up?

WOMAN: Backs?

TODD: Yeah, back. It's your back. And you have scoliosis?

WOMAN: No.

TODD: What do you have?

WOMAN: I don't know.

TODD: You have something going on. A lot of pain. Now I want you guys to come and watch 'cause this will be so good. You want to stand right up here. Okay. Here's what--You sit there. Here's what I want you to do. I want you to give me your feet.

WOMAN: You want me to take off--

TODD: No, you don't have to take off. No. Okay. Okay. Here's what I know. I know what I hear in my heart. And I'm hearing that one of your legs is shorter than the other by a significant amount. And you already knew that, right? Okay. So here, I'm gonna give you something to figure out scientifically, 'cause this will blow you away, because you're in to science, and I think it's amazing that God has given you such an amazing mind. It's good. But right now, God is gonna grow your leg out, because I'm gonna command your bones to grow and your ligaments, and your tendons, and your back is gonna be healed, and your leg is gonna grow out. So that right there is amazing, and He loves you. Okay?

WOMAN: Okay.

TODD: You ready?

WOMAN: Okay.

TODD: Okay. Jesus, thank you. Father, I thank you for growing out her left leg right now. Bones, ligaments, tendons, in Jesus' name, get out here right now.

WOMAN: There it goes.

TODD: Now you do me a favor. You scientifically explain what just happened.

WOMAN: No.

TODD: You can't.

WOMAN: No.

TODD: 'Cause it's a miracle. Jesus loves you so much.

WOMAN: Thank you.

TODD: Which one of your necks is giving you trouble? Your neck? Yeah. Right now.

WOMAN: Oh my God, that is so--

TODD: No. Watch this. No. Watch. I want you to scientifically explain this right now. It's on this side. Come here. God is gonna completely heal your neck 'cause He's just, He loves the mind. He does. It's just sometimes our mind tries to get in the way of our heart, because our heart can take its place because our brain can never fit. Right? Neck, I command you be healed because Jesus is Lord and He loves you so much. Come, Holy Spirit in Jesus' name. Move your neck. Nobody has a problem with one of their wrists right now.

Woman: I do.

TODD: You do. Is it both of them or is it just this one? Yeah. Daddy, thank you in Jesus' name. Wrist, I command you be healed right now. Carpal tunnel, I curse you and command you to let her go in Jesus' name. Move your wrist. No, I'm hearing wrist. God will heal you right now. Come here. Daddy, thank you so much that you love her so much, God, that you just bless her, God, 'cause she's an amazing daughter. Father, I thank you right now her heart has so outgrown her brain because you love her so much. God, thank you for your daughter. Jesus, thank you for your daughter.

Woman: Wow.

TODD: [laugh] It's called a miracle. Come on. It's the real deal.

SID: Todd, your faith is so outrageous. It's so normal. I want everyone to walk in this kind of faith. This is normal for you. When you listen to his special CD, I believe that his faith will just jump on you. In fact, Todd, I'm gonna put a demand on your gift right now. You have such a marvelous gift. I want you to look into the camera and I'm gonna surprise you. I want you to sing whatever God puts in your heart. And as Todd sings, you are going to be delivered and healed. You believe God right now. Todd, sing.

TODD: [singing] Oh God, I thank you for your sons and daughters. Oh Jesus, come into their life right now. And we give you glory. And we give you praise. Holy! [speaking] Father, I thank in Jesus' name, Lord God. We crush cancer in Jesus' name. We command it to leave the bodies right now. Father, I thank you for every joint, for every bit of arthritis, we curse it and command it, let go right now, in Jesus' name. Father, I thank you for all mental disorders right now, for bipolar, for schizophrenia, I command you let them go right now in Jesus' name. Father, I thank you for amazing breakthrough in every area of mental incapacity to make it the capacity of the Kingdom of God, in Jesus' name.

SID: And I pray that you be normal. Todd is normal, in Jesus' name.
