SID: My guest has uncovered an insidious plot against our children and our grandchildren. Latest statistics show only 4 percent of this next generation will be involved in evangelical Christianity.

Is there a supernatural dimension, a world beyond the one we know? Is there life after death? Do angels exist? Can our dreams contain messages from Heaven? Can we tap into ancient secrets of the supernatural? Are healing miracles real? Sid Roth has spent over 35 years researching the strange world of the supernatural. Join Sid for this edition of It's Supernatural.

SID: Hello, Sid Roth here. Welcome to my world where it's naturally supernatural. You know, when Jesus walked in the flesh, if you read the New Testament you find out that one-third of his ministry was casting evil spirits out of people. And he didn't even have to deal with some of the things we have today. He didn't have the Internet, which is just so filled with pornography and things like that. He didn't have movies like vampires going around. And if there were that many evil spirits back then, I have to believe they've even been multiplied with everything going on in the world today. My guest, Becca Greenwood, teaches us how to identify the demonic and how to understand what causes the demonic, and how to get rid of it, and even better, how to close the door. And there's no fear in this. In fact, there's so little fear in this that her specialty is teaching this to little children. But Becca tell me about the dream that you had about your future.

BECCA: Well you know, Sid, it was back in 1990, and I actually, the Lord showed me in this dream that I was standing on a platform. And as I was standing on a platform there were thousands of people surrounding it. And I was reaching out and touching their hands, all different races, different people groups, adults, children... And I asked the Lord, "Lord, what is this?" And He answered me in a question and He said, "Becca, will you be responsible for the souls I have allotted to you?" And I prayed this prayer, "Lord, show me how. I don't know how, but show me how." And that was back in 1990. And from then on, we have been involved in seeing people get saved, deliverance inner healing ministry, seeing people come out of their past into the fullness of freedom and purpose, and destiny.

SID: But there's such a deluge of the evil that is going on. I've never seen so much in my lifetime. Tell me what symptoms parents should look for in children if it might be demonic or evil spirit intervention.

BECCA: Well obviously you start seeing drastic or even gradual personality changes. If a child is full of joy and they become fearful, if they start to withdraw, if they're starting to be drawn to want to watch shows of darkness. Even with teenagers, you'll even see their wardrobe will start to change. For girls, their makeup will change. Their hair will change. And you'll even begin to feel in your home, you won't feel that freedom of relationship. There will be tension that will be there. And sometimes they'll become depressed. You'll see a lot of depression that will begin to rest on a child or a teenager; nightmares, bad dreams, night terrors.

SID: What are some of the open doors that allow the access?

BECCA: There are many open doors. It can be the form of entertainment that we're choosing to allow our children and our teenagers to watch, or that they're watching that we don't know about. It can be the Internet. Children are brilliant on the computer and on the Internet. And so we have to understand that there are open doors that they can stumble into of darkness.

SID: You were telling me that there's some scientific data out now on these video games. Some of these kids play day and night these video games, especially the violent games.

BECCA: Yes, the violent video games. And when they play these violent video games what happens is they believe that violence becomes the way to solve problems. They themselves are suspecting that people are going to be violent on them. They become suspicious. They actually, one of the quotes that we talk about and that we teach is, a child can get really good at scoring basketball hoops. If you practice thousands of times scoring that hoop, you're going to get good. You're going to make those baskets. Well the same is true. If we practice thousands of times, hours everyday shooting someone in a violent video game we become desensitized, and that's what happens with our youth and our children, and they think violence is a way to solve their problems. They expect the world to be a place of violence and they become very superstitious. Their grades will start falling and they even become withdrawn.

SID: You know we're seeing an epidemic of these flash mobs, these flash riots. And you wonder, how could this be happening in England? How could this be happening in the United States of America? It's no wonder we're desensitizing an entire generation. Now I've never heard of this series of books. I've never seen the movies. But you were telling me about a particular series of books and movies. Explain that.

BECCA: Yes. You know another open door that we're seeing on children and youth, Sid, is children that are watching Twilight movies. There is a vampire movement that is out there with this generation and what this has done is it's made evil look good. And what it has caused the young children and even teenagers to begin thinking that it's okay to step into darkness. There are even eight year old girls now after watching these movies who will come up to the actor who starred in the show and they'll say, "Please bite me so I become a vampire like you." I mean, it has so...it's seduction.

SID: The series, Twilight, even the music, you were telling me.

BECCA: Even the music.

SID: Tell me about the supernatural quality of that music.

BECCA: The supernatural quality of that music, and actually the author of the book series and the movie, she purposefully chose that music because she says it will put you in a suicidal state faster than anything else you can listen to.

SID: Well I have an answer. I know you have lots of answers. I have an answer for the violent video games. I got this email from the mother of nine-year-old Jaylin. Listen to this. "First I want to say thank you for It's Supernatural. Your show has so blessed my family tremendously and stretched our faith beyond what we could have ever imagined. My nine year old son never misses your show. It is the highlight of his week. He gets up early, sometimes five a.m. to watch before doing school work because he does not want to miss your show. He knows each of the shows by heart, even some in archives up to two years back. Sid, you're more popular than video games. Perhaps you were not aware that's a tough to act to beat in our house." So I've got the answer. Don't go away. You're going to get answers to questions that you've been pondering in your heart. We'll be right back.

SID: Hello, Sid Roth here with Becca Greenwood. And there is an all out assault on our children. It's almost like it reminds me that when Jesus was born there was an all out assault on Jewish youth two years and under. Well that's going on today. My guest, Becca Greenwood, has the most wonderful supernatural ministry. She's been equipped by Heaven, literally, to set children free. But let me give you a clue. If children can be free, adults can be free. The principles work for everyone. Becca, tell me some of the latest statistics on our young people.

BECCA: You know, the statistics say that only four percent of this next generation will be evangelical Christians. And so there is a battle that is raging out there against our young people and against this next generation. And also, there are 58 percent that literally view objectionable material or even pornography on the Internet. Do you know that the starting age of a child to see pornography is 11, and the most prominent group that views pornography, they're from the age of 12 to 17 on the Internet each week?

SID: What a seduction that is going on of our youth. It's like a Pied Piper called the devil. And he has the computer, which was meant for good, is being used. Now what happens when a child opens a door like that when seeing pornography?

BECCA: When a door is opened what happens is, then that spirit of seduction or perversion will attach itself to that child. And then what will then happen is that child is going to need freedom and deliverance. This is what we're so passionate about. We don't have to see our children and our teenagers walk through their young years tormented.

SID: Speaking of tormenting, tell me about that nine year old girl.

BECCA: Yes. This nine year old girl that we prayed for, we were ministering in a church, and the pastor said, "She's really struggling. Can you meet with her?" So my husband and I did and we began to pray for her. And I knew by word of knowledge that she hadn't received salvation. So we prayed for her. But the reason why they brought her to us was because she was having repeated nightmares in the night hours. And in this nightmare, this snake would come and bite her in the stomach. And from the time she had that first dream, she literally was living in chronic pain. They had taken her to the doctor, run every medical test. They could not find anything wrong with her. And so they had prayed for her. So when they brought her to us the Lord told me she wasn't saved. So we led her to the Lord, got her saved, and after a few minutes she said, "Miss Becca, I feel good." But then a few minutes later she said, "But Miss Becca, this pain is back." So we knew at that moment this is a deliverance issue. And so we prayed and asked the Lord. The Lord showed me prophetically that there were horror movies in the home. So I asked the mother, I said, "Are you allowing her to watch horror movies?" And the mother said, "No." And I said, "But are there some in the home." And she said, "Yes. Her dad loves them, has a whole bookshelf full of horror movies." And I explained to the mother, "It doesn't matter that she's not allowed to watch them. Having them in the home is a red carpet invitation to the demonic to harass your child." So we prayed, Sid, and we broke the power of witchcraft that was coming from those horror movies, and as soon as we did, this nine year old little girl, we'll call her Sarah, she looks up and she grins, living in chronic pain for about at least nine months at that time, looks up and grins. She said, "Miss Becca, the pain is gone." And from that moment she has not had any further pain. And the dad was so elated to see his child free that when the mom went home, he literally got rid of all of those horror movies from their home.

SID: What type of open doors could there be in the home? Watching horror films? What else?

BECCA: Right, horror films. You can have, if there are things if idolatry in your home, if there is demonic artwork.

SID: Give me an example of something of idolatry.

BECCA: Something of idolatry, you know, something of idolatry can be where literally someone is looking to that object to where they might pray to that object. They believe that object has power. It can even be if you've traveled on a trip and you've gotten a beautiful vase, but yet it has a picture of an idol that has been worshiped and prayed to, that is an open door for the demonic.

SID: Even if you're not worshiping it?

BECCA: Even if you're not worshiping it, absolutely. We want our homes just as pure as we can have them.

SID: Tell me about, I'm amazed at the person that had the blocked artery. After they got your teaching, what happened?

BECCA: Yes, that's right. See, this is another open door, a generational curse. This gentleman actually had people that were involved in the occult in his past. And he actually had 40 percent, actually, his arteries were 40 and 60 percent blocked and he was going to have to have a kidney transplant. So he called and he said, "I believe this is a spiritual issue. Can you pray for me?" So we prayed with him over the phone. He lived three states away. Just did it over the phone. Prayed for him, broke the power of witchcraft and infirmity, the curse of infirmity that came down from occult activity in his past generations. He went in the next day for the final tests before his surgery, and all the blockage, 40 percent, 60 percent, totally removed, totally healed. Surgery was cancelled.

SID: How would you like Becca to pray for you? I'm going to have her teach a little, because she is so gifted from Heaven in her ability to communicate an area should not have fear, that should be simple and that should set you free so you don't have to go, so a child doesn't have to go 30 years with all sorts of traumas and fears that can be set free, and live their life. Some of you have gone 20 or 30 years with problems. It's not necessary. That's why Jesus came and died just for you. Don't go away. We'll be right back.

We now return to It's Supernatural.

SID: Hello, Sid Roth here with Becca Greenwood. And you say, how can you teach young children about the areas of evil spirits, about their authority in God? Guess what? If it's taught properly there is no fear and it's easy for them to catch it. And they don't have to go through all the grief I've gone through or all the grief that Becca has gone through in her life, or all the grief that you've gone through. As a matter of fact, some of you need this even if you're not a child. But Becca, I mean, how do you teach a child about their spiritual authority? I mean, it sounds so wonderful to me.

BECCA: Yes. Well you know, how we were jump started into this is our oldest daughter began to see, actually, she could see supernaturally. She could see angels and she could see demons, and she started seeing at a very young age. And so the first time that she had this encounter she was around, probably between a year and a half and two years old. And she was a very peaceful child, slept through the night, very peaceful. She started waking up same time every night, three a.m., just screaming in fear, and the only way we could calm her down was to put her in bed with us. So I called our pastor and I said, "I think we need someone to come pray in our home," because I was new to this. This was new to me. And he asked me what was happening. He said, "No, you don't need to have someone come pray in your home. Your daughter is actually seeing, she's seeing supernaturally." And I said, "Oh, what do we do with this?" And so he told us. So that night when she woke up and she did, we ran into her room to comfort her. My husband and I were a little nervous because this was a first for us, too you know, go into her room and we turn the light on, and she runs over and grabs my legs, "Mama, scary, scary." So I asked her this question, I said, "Sweetheart, are you seeing something?" And she said, "Um-hmm, Mama, um-hmm." And the only thing she could relate it to was she said, "Big bad gorilla, Mama, big bad gorilla." So we knew it was something of the enemy. And so we just prayed in a very calm voice, and we said, "In Jesus' name, we command all bad spirits to leave. And Jesus, we thank you that you send your warring angels on behalf of Kendall." And that little child looked up and smiled at me and said, "Pity angel, Mama," in her little voice, and climbed back into bed and went to sleep. So what we have to learn in our homes, when our children come to us and they say, I'm having bad dreams or I'm seeing something scary, we can't just say, oh this is just your imagination, it will go away. What we have to do is we have to say, okay, and respond to that and pray with them, teach them how to pray in a very non-religious, very childlike faith, "In the name of Jesus, go and Jesus send your angels." So we can release the supernatural in our home in a way that children begin to see that activity on a regular basis. We can teach our children who they are in the Kingdom of God. One thing that we do, we have what's called kingdom identities. And especially for a child that's overcome fear or overcome depression, we'll have them write down their new kingdom identities: "I am brave. I am a son of God. Jesus loves me and I'm happy. I'm not sad." And we take scriptures and put it in the language of what that child, the age of that child, and we begin to have the parents speak that kingdom identity over that child. And so what happens is they then begin to embrace who they are in the Kingdom, and as they do it starts to release that authority of who they are. When they get into tough situations they go to this place of, Jesus loves me or Jesus is my best friend, Jesus is my provider. And we actually, one time with one of our other daughters, it was a family story now. But we actually got almost stranded on the side of a mountain in a snowstorm at Christmastime, and it was a scary ride on the way back down from the mountain. And it so blessed my heart to hear one of my other daughters, as we're driving down and we're praying and saying, "Lord, we thank you, we're going to get off this snowy mountain", and it was night. And out of the backseat of the car comes this little voice, "Jesus, we are more than conquerors in you, and we have the victory, and your angels are going to get us off this mountain safe and sound."

SID: Can you picture your young children being able to have such boldness in this life at that age? Can you picture a turnaround of your teenagers? I do not receive the statistics that say four percent of our children are going to be believers of this generation. I don't accept those statistics because it's going to change and it's going to change starting with you. You're going to go through this deliverance. You're going to get cleaned, your teenagers, your young children. And Becca, I want you to sing, and people are going to be emotionally and physically set free of evil spirits if you will sing right now. She has this supernatural anointing on her voice. I heard it when you were practicing.

BECCA: Amen. So as I'm singing I want you to allow the love of the Lord to touch your heart and go into those places, even of trauma for you adults that I'm seeing right now, and let that love touch that place. [singing] Draw me close to you Never let me go. I lay it all down again to hear you say that I'm your friend. You are my desire. No one else will do. Cause nothing else can take the place to fill the warmth of your embrace. Help me find the way. Bring me back to you. We need to know, Lord, help us know you are near. [talking] Right now there is a mother and you have specifically been pressing in for your son. And I believe your son is around the age of 17 to 18 years old. And even when we were talking about this Twilight series, your son has been dabbling in, not even the movies, but this vampire movement. So right now we just speak to this mother for her faith to increase. And where there has been hope deferred and discouragement we break that off. And right now we speak and we call out to this young boy who is trapped in the seduction of this vampire movement. We break all attachments of witchcraft and an anti-Christ spirit and the seducing spirit that goes along with that vampire movement. And we break every lie of deception that has come against this young man, and we sever that power now in Jesus' name. And actually, there's another young woman. You're in your 20s and you're watching this show, and you have been so depressed. You have been cutting yourself. And actually, you, this morning, prayed this prayer, "Jesus, I need your help, and when I turn on this show, Lord, let it have the answer for me." So right now every trauma that was unleashed to you, precious, in your early years of abuse, I break the power of trauma right now in Jesus name. I speak the healing love of Jesus that will go into those places where you were abused. And where there is that depression and heaviness, I command depression and heaviness to leave now in Jesus' name. And the love of Jesus to flow over you, from the top of your head to the soles of your feet. Today is your day of freedom.

SID: You know, Becca, when I was 30 years of age, Jesus revealed himself to me and there was such an instant transformation that occurred that no one could deny it. My Jewish parents did not want to believe in Jesus, but they could not deny the radical transformation that occurred in me. And my faith says that you are going to have your children's, everything about them will be different. They're wandering in the wrong paths. They're looking at the wrong things on the Internet right now. They've got the tattoos. They want the earrings, the metal all over themselves. They're going to lead. They're going to be leaders in righteousness. That's my faith says because I know Jesus, and you're going to know Jesus, and your children are going to know Jesus, and he's going to be Lord of all. That's what I confess over you because this is your moment.
