Is there a supernatural dimension, a world beyond the one we know? Is there life after death? Do angels exist? Can our dreams contain messages from Heaven? Can we tap into ancient secrets of the supernatural? Are healing miracles real? Sid Roth has spent over 35 years researching the strange world of the supernatural. Join Sid for this edition of It's Supernatural.

SID: What is going on in Charlotte? You are one exciting group of people. Welcome to my world where it's naturally supernatural. I wouldn't want to be in any other world, and where we're coming to in history you better have it naturally supernatural. Speaking of history, how would you like to have next month's newspaper today? What difference would it make? All the difference in the world? My guest has such revelation knowledge that he knows the next war. He knows, and it's written. It's not just some he heard a voice. It is written in the Word of God what nations are going to be destroyed next, what nations will survive, what is going to happen and I want to find out about this. We'll be right back. My guest, John McTernan is a throwback. What do I mean by a throwback. He is literally an old covenant prophet who's around today. I mean, he reminds me of someone like a Jeremiah, because just before 9-11, what was going on inside of you, John?

JOHN: Sid, I knew something terrible was coming. I was in prayer. It was like a dread came over me about two weeks before 9-11, this heavy weight. And I was not surprised. I didn't know specifically the World Trade Center was going to be attacked, but I knew in the spirit something big was happening.

SID: And in January 2012, that same type of ominous feeling came on you again, but it was different this time. It stayed.

JOHN: Yes, Sid, yes. As soon as the calendar hit, as soon as we went to the new year it was strange. I looked ahead towards the summer and the fall of 2012, and I got this ominous feeling, but I'm calling it like low grade. It wasn't as intense as 9-11, but it has not lifted this year. It's constantly on me.

SID: Okay. October 11, 1987, you're minding your own business. You turn on TV. You see a gigantic rally of homosexuals, gigantic, on the TV. Take me from there.

JOHN: Well I was not aware it had occurred. And it was like a sound bite on TV. And I just go up. It kind of upset me to see things like, "Thank God I'm gay". They had big signs up and things like that. So I got up and I turned the TV off, and walked away. I never thought of interceding before the Lord. I never thought of crying out to him in mercy. I never thought that He would judge the land because of it.

SID: And what happened next?

JOHN: Right after that, the stock market started to crash. It had the biggest one-week percentage-wise crash in the market, in history. Then the following Monday, we had the big crash of 508 points and the market had contracted a third.

SID: And God spoke to you about the video that you saw on TV.

JOHN: Yes, Sid, he did. I was watching TV. I was standing in the living room and the news broadcaster's lip was actually quivering. You could see it. It was quivering up and down like this. And he said, "Is this going to be the beginning of another great depression? Is the economy going to collapse?" And immediately I had like a vision of the week before when I was watching that event in Washington, and then I heard crystal clear the voice of the Lord. It wasn't from the outside. It was in the inside, but I was actually having a conversation. And in it, the Lord put the two together right in my mind, the week that happened the week before, this stock market crash, and He said, judgment was on the land, and I didn't fear Him. I didn't understand His Holiness.

SID: Now the research that you have done, the research John McTernan has done, I'm a Jew. I know a lot about my history and my people. I know a lot about the Bible. But I have never seen the material that John McTernan has gathered of the American Jewish/Israeli connection and the blessings of God as a result of it. Very briefly, John, tell me about George Washington and his Jewish connection.

JOHN: George Washington loved the Jewish people. His chief of staff, during the war, was a Jew and his personal physician was a Jew. And in America in general, the colonial America, it was not an impediment to be a Jew. The Jews had reached great heights. They were completely free. And they wrote about that. They wrote how free they were. There were seven Jewish communities in America. And in 1790, he wrote a letter to each community, and two in particular, the one to Savannah, Georgia and the one to Newport, Rhode Island, were fantastic. I'll sum them up. Basically, he connected America becoming a nation with the holy God of Israel as Israel had been developed from Egypt into the promised land. He made it direct. In fact, he quoted Psalm 144, "Blessed is that nation whose Lord is the God."

SID: Now there have been blessings on America because of this nation of freedom that was given to Jewish people. You pointed out, in the late 1800s, there were pogroms in Russia and Jews were being persecuted. What country opened their arms to Jews? The United States of America. But the thing that's so mind blowing to me is President Roosevelt was about, tell me briefly, what he did, what happened to him.

JOHN: President Roosevelt met with the king of Saudi Arabia in Egypt, and they had a one-day meeting. And as a result of the meeting, Saudi Arabia agreed to make America special deals with America with oil, and that America would protect Saudi Arabia. That's what the official history says. But also connected with it, President Roosevelt agreed to the king that he would not allow a Jewish state in Palestine. So that was really, I see it, as I look at history, in my mind there's no doubt that President Roosevelt traded what God's prophetic plan was, and America was a part of it, for the creation of the Nation of Israel, he traded that for oil.

SID: And what happened shortly after he did that?

JOHN: Well Sid, there was a letter from the king of Saudi Arabia to Roosevelt articulating that meeting that took place in February. This letter was dated March 10, 1945, and it said incredible things about the Jewish people. He actually likened them to the Nazis. He said that a state in Israel, a state of Israel in Palestine would be like creating a Nazi state.

SID: And his life was taken how much after that letter?

JOHN: What happened was Roosevelt responded to the king and said, “No, no, America is never going to allow a Jewish state in Palestine.” That letter was dated April 5, 1945. Roosevelt died on April 12th, exactly one week later, 1945.

SID: And guess who took his place? A president, his name was Truman, whose mother taught him from a child to love the Jew in Israel. And had Harry Truman not been president, perhaps Israel would not have come into existence.

JOHN: As I study history and I understand the mood of America, I think that Harry Truman is probably the only man that would have gone through with the recognition of the State of Israel.

SID: Okay. When we come back, America’s fatal mistake.

SID: Hello Sid Roth here with John McTernan. By the way, are you in the studio audience, are you enjoying this teaching?

Audience: [applause, cheers]

SID: Me, too. Are you enjoying this teaching? I have to tell you, there are facts I’m learning that I never, ever knew. For instance, God began to show John McTernan there was a definite correlation between America doing something against Israel and what the world calls natural disasters: stock market going down, earthquakes, tornadoes. And for instance, tell me about what happened to President Bush, Sr.’s home and why.

JOHN: Well this is an amazing story. President Bush, Sr., after the first Gulf War, decided he wanted a comprehensive Middle East peace plan, and he centered that around dividing the land of Israel, creating a Palestinian state, and dividing Jerusalem, which is in gross violation of God’s word. There are many scriptures warning not to divide the land. God will judge.

SID: Paraphrase Joel 3, as one of these scriptures.

JOHN: Joel 3, Verse 2, specifically says that, God will judge for hurting the Jewish people and for dividing the land, that He specifically will judge for doing that.

SID: Isn't it amazing? It specifically says in Joel, Chapter 3, that nations will be judged, and it says one specific sin: "Dividing up my land." In other words, God says that land is not the Jewish people's. That land is not the Palestinian's. He says "my land". That's His land. Get it? Now He has arranged a long term lease with the Jewish people on His land.

JOHN: That's great.

SID: And Psalm 105, Verse 8-11, says, "I, God, have leased the land," He doesn't say "lease". "I've given the land to the Jewish people," and He has three adjectives. Must be important when he says it three different ways: forever, ever-lasting and a thousand generations." Okay. Now let's go back to Bush, Sr., who violates Joel 3 and a number of other scriptures. What happened?

JOHN: It's October 30, 1991. President Bush is in Madrid, Spain, starting officially what we call now the Madrid Peace Process, and the centerpiece of that is dividing the land of Israel. He's giving a speech to do this. While he's doing it, now this is not a day before or a day after, or a week before, a week after. On the very day he's in Madrid giving the speech, a bizarre storm had formed in the North Atlantic, and by bizarre, I mean it was hurricane. When is the last time you heard a hurricane, October 30th, forming off of Nova Scotia. It came the wrong way. It's called a retrograde storm. Normally, weather patterns are from west to east and from south to north. This storm went from east to west and from north to south, retrograde. It happens, in my lifetime it's the only time I've ever heard it. And according to meteorologists, it happens once every two, 300 years. And what it did was it raked the east coast of the United States and it sent gigantic waves. And President Bush has a home in Kennebunkport, Maine, on the coast, and it's a neck of land that sticks out in the Atlantic. While he's giving the speech, the storm which became known as "the perfect storm". There was a best-selling book about it.

SID: And it was called the perfect storm because all these variables had to happen for something to happen that just can't happen. And that's why they said, they made a movie and a book, "The Perfect Storm."

JOHN: So on the very day, and I'm emphasizing this, on the very day, the perfect storm sent 30-foot waves against his home and destroyed it. When he came back from Madrid, Spain, he had to go to Kennebunkport. He spent two days overseeing the reconstruction of his home.

SID: Yes, but there are people watching us right now and saying, colossal coincidence. What would you say to them?

JOHN: That's legitimate. But I would say, as I have documented, I have over a hundred now of the worst disasters that hit America. So I would say to this person, if I can show you 10 of the 10 greatest same-day events, would you believe it? The person says no. If I showed the 20 greatest same-day events, I can go 30, 40, 50, a hundred.

SID: In other words, you showed me the FEMA, the website, which anyone can go on. And the top 10 natural disasters to hit America, the top 10 economic disasters to hit America within how long from the disaster to doing something negative with Israel and the disaster, how long did it take and how many were connected with doing something against Israel?

JOHN: Well usually it's the same day or within 24 hours afterwards. It's usually a same-day event. And the headlines—

SID: How many of the top 10?

JOHN: Nine out of the top 10.

SID: Speaking about dividing the land, you have a very interesting thing. This was the Madrid Peace Conference. And then there is something that sounds similar, the Madrid fault. Explain.

JOHN: It is very unique. It's the Madrid Peace Process to divide the land of Israel. Right in the middle of the United States, running roughly from Memphis up into Missouri, and then it splits, is the New Madrid fault. It's the same spelling. And it runs right in the middle of the United States. And the greatest earthquakes to ever hit the United States hit in 1811 and 1812 with the New Madrid fault, and it literally sent the Mississippi River running backwards. If that hit today, Sid, it would be right in the middle, it would cut the United States right in half and you would have bridges down. You'd have power lines down. You'd have gas lines down. You'd have Memphis to St. Louis down over to Cincinnati. It would be devastating to the United States.

SID: Could it be that God is saying, "You divide my land, United States, and I will divide your land." Don't go away. We'll be right back.

We now return to It's Supernatural.

SID: Hello Sid Roth here with John McTernan. You don't know this. We had a major breakdown in our equipment just before we did this segment, because someone doesn't want you to hear this. But someone wants you to hear it, and He's greater than someone than someone who doesn't want you to hear it. Alright. So Obadiah, jammed pack with what's about ready to happen on Planet Earth, John, give me a brief synopsis of Obadiah.

JOHN: Powerful book, Sid. And it's about this ancient battle between the house of Esau, which today would be the Palestinians, and the Jewish people. And it documents what happened in history. Then there's a verse in Obadiah, Verse 15, which says, "The day of the Lord is near upon all nations." That brings Obadiah right to today. The day of the Lord is the period of time around the second coming of Jesus Christ, and when God judges the nations. And according to Obadiah, it says, they're going to judge the nations for what they've done to Israel, how they've touched Israel. It's a fantastic book.

SID: You know the sentence that jumps out at me in Obadiah, is Obadiah 1:15: "As you have done to them," meaning Israel, "As you have done to Israel it will be done to you." I mean, you can't get any stronger than that. But Obadiah actually shows the confederation of, I believe is it Psalm 83. Explain that.

JOHN: Obadiah and Psalm 83 tie together. And Obadiah is the centerpiece. And when you understand Obadiah everything fits together. Obadiah talks about an all-out war between the House of Jacob and the House of Esau, and none of the House of Esau will remain. It's all out. And that's what happening now. We actually see in the Middle East this all-out war building up.

SID: Now what's going on Egypt, as you see it?

JOHN: Egypt is turning, it's not turning. It has turned to become the Muslim Brotherhood are now in control of Egypt. They control everything: the president, the military, the parliament. And the Muslim Brotherhood is like Hamas, and they are sworn to destroy Israel.

SID: Well you know what's so amazing to me, is when Morsy became president. He's with the Muslim Brotherhood, and I might add, they are welcomed guests in our White House. I want you to take a look at Morsy's spiritual leader, and he's actually in the background. Let's take a look at this clip right here.

[begin video]

Morsi: [Egyptian]

[end video]

SID: You know, it's amazing to me. John, did you read the same article I did, that they're actually for people that disagree with the Muslim Brotherhood in Egypt, they're having crucifixions, real crucifixions.

JOHN: Yes. I absolutely read it. And this is the rise of like Mohammed Islam. This is the way it was under Mohammed. But notice the target, the goal of this is Jerusalem. They actually said in that clip, the full clip, that they're forming a caliphate, which is a panned Islamic union, and that Cairo is not going to be the capital, but Jerusalem is going to be the capital or they'll die as martyrs. So what's coming, according to Obadiah, is this all-out war, and that Obadiah then tells us what happens after this war.

SID: Tell me, just briefly, what nations are going to be destroyed shortly, according to Obadiah.

JOHN: According to Obadiah, Lebanon, Jordan, Egypt, Syria and possibly Saudi Arabia. Some things are unclear, Sid. But those nations definitely, and Iraq, which is ancient Babylon, is going to get involved.

SID: But it actually says the borders of Israel will expand.

JOHN: That's right, Sid.

SID: What's going to happen?

JOHN: Israel is going to move south to Egypt, according to Obadiah. Israel is going to move east into Jordan. Israel is going to move north into Lebanon. And it's interesting. In the book it tells you the exact location, like how far north they're going to go. And Israel will move north into Syria and all the Palestinian strongholds today, like Gaza and what's called the West Bank, which is Samaria in the Bible, will disappear, and Israel will be all unified.

SID: Do you know what I believe? I believe if America makes this fatal mistake, the greatest country in the world will no longer be the greatest country in the world. But it doesn't have to happen to you and your house, because God says, not me, not John McTernan, God says, Genesis 12:3, "I, God will bless those who bless the Jewish people, and I, God will curse those who curse them." And this is a covenant with Almighty God. And I believe that you can appropriate all of the blessings of God on your house as you walk in the blessings of God for your being a blessing to the Jewish people and Israel. Greatest blessing in the world, tell a Jewish person about Jesus. Do it right away.
